

Win dinner and Schubert by twilight

A SCINTILLATING twilight Schubert concert is set to mark the opening of the School of Music's Showcase Series in March – and we have a special giveaway to celebrate the occasion.

Three lucky alumni will win double passes to the Schubertiade performance by acclaimed Australian soprano Rosamund Illing and distinguished pianist Ian Holtham on Tuesday, 23 March, followed by a delicious dinner at University House.

Schubertiade is a program of works featuring some of Schubert's most treasured gems, including the 'Mignon Lieder' and 'the G flat Impromptu for piano'. Illing and Holtham will be joined by music alumnus and Melbourne Symphony Orchestra principal clarinetist David Thomas for a magical performance of 'Shepherd on the rock'.

Running from March until September, the Faculty of the VCA and Music's Showcase Series of three concerts will feature the talents of established and emerging artists. Concerts in the series include:
